GUIDANCE: This supplementary information will be attached to DD Form 1396 - 1. This supplement has been designed to prevent the disclosure of sensitive information to foreign nationals and to provide a collector's assessment of subject. Sensitive information of an operational nature which must be tightly controlled (paragraph 7b, DIAI 36 - 13) should not be included in this supplement. Where practicable, the following information will be furnished:

51. POLICE RECORD (Other than minor violations).

52. RELIGION - Effect of subject's religion or religious connections on his actions, military advancement, political views, etc.

53. ACQUAINTANCES AND RELATIVES - Apparent influence of acquaintances and relatives on subject's views or career.

54. CHARACTER - Subject's character, strengths and weaknesses, intelligence, loyalty, judgment, ability to communicate, leadership ability, and influence. Significance of individual in shaping international policies of his country.

Subject appears to be stable in character, with a tendency toward being opinionated on a variety of subjects. He has average intelligence, but is prone to racial/religious prejudice. He communicates very well through a friendly, sincere conversational technique. His speech is rapid and laced with local expressions. His leadership ability [ ] are unknown, but he would probably be a demanding boss if placed in a command position.

55. POLITICAL ORIENTATION - Attitude towards United States and other countries. Remarks and actions of subject toward representatives of the United States and its allies, and to representatives of nonaligned nations and Communist bloc nations. Political activities and attitudes, important political contacts, party affiliations, potential political influence in country in the event of a change in government.

Subject [ ] is concerned about the strain in relations which has resulted from U.S. Human Rights policies (since 1976). He is opposed to communism and to any program which would permit communist influence to increase in Argentina.

He also feels that Chile is an aggressive country which needs to be watched closely for its expansionist policies.

On the subject of the Falkland Islands (owned by Great Britain, claimed by Argentina), he feels that England is mistreating the islanders, and that Argentina will eventually be able to possess the islands through a gradual increase in influence.
Subject dresses neatly and conservatively. He is well-groomed and masculine in appearance. He has no eccentricities or unusual features which are apparent. His hair is thinning on top.

Subject is friendly and outgoing.

Reputation unknown. Subject claims to be highly dedicated and hard-working and that his present boss, Brigadier ((CAPPELLINI)), has supported him in his career. He was disappointed at not being promoted to Vice-Comodoro in December 1979, but this is not necessarily a blot on his career. Due to availability of slots for new Vice-Comodoros, his class was divided for promotion, and subject will undoubtedly advance to Vice-Comodoro in December 1980.

Subject says he has three thousand water landings to his credit as an Albatross pilot. His total flying hours are around 4,500.
