- Item 14- Major Bardini participated fully in the social activities of his academic section and the Allied Officer Programs on post. He gave an outstanding Know Your World Program presentation on Argentina. Other on post activities included bowling and golf.
- Item 15- Major Bardini participated fully in the social activities in the civilian communities of Kansas City and Leavenworth. Other off post activities participated in were as guest speaker at the Inter-American Club of Kansas City.
- Item 16- Major Bardini established an excellent academic record. His class standing was above average in comparison with the class standing of the officers from Argentina who have attended USACGSC since 1965. The results of examinations record that his highest grades were attained in division operations subjects. He is considered fully qualified and is highly recommended for assignment as a general staff officer in his country's armed forces and with a combined staff.

Major Bardini satisfactorily completed elective courses of:

R492 - Instructor Training Course

R460 - Development of Combat Divisions
