 - Leadership
 - Communication
 - Involvement in Decisions
 - Opportunities to Get a Better Job
- Satisfaction with 7 of the 15 key dimensions increased between 2011 and 2012. NIU's largest increase was for Compensation, which increased 16% from 67% satisfied in 2011 to 83% satisfied in 2012.

Best Places to Work Indices

Description

Each year, the Partnership for Public Service (PPS) ranks Federal Agencies based on their survey results. DIA participates in this ranking as part of the aggregate IC score. The Partnership for Public Service measure 10 indices, including the Best Places to Work ranking. Whereas the other indices are calculated via an average of the composite items, the Best Places to Work ranking calculation, based on the three items below, is proprietary to the Partnership for Public Service.

OPM & ODNI Indices

This year, six indices were calculated to aggregate related individual items together into one easy to understand score. Each index score is calculated by taking an average of all its individual component item scores.

US Office of Personnel Management (OPM) calculates four Human Capital Assessment and Accountability Framework (HCAAF) indices to track progress towards HCAAF objectives and the Conditions of Employee Engagement index to measure workforce engagement. US Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) calculates an IC Collaboration index to track levels of collaboration across the Intelligence Community.

Appendix A: Methodology and Importance

Survey Overview

About the Survey: DIA fulfilled the Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) requirement to participate in the 2012 Intelligence Community Survey by incorporating survey items from the Intelligence Community Survey into the AHCS. The AHCS measures employee perceptions across the dimensions that drive employee satisfaction and identifies trends and changes over time.

Administration: The 2012 AHCS was open to all military and civilian DIA employees between April 10th and May 18th, 2012. Surveys were administered via a web-based technology; employees received an email notification that included a link to the survey on JWICS or SIPRNet.

Response Rate: The Agency response rate is 57%, an increase over last year's 53% response rate. Based on this response rate, the confidence level is 99% +/- .99%.

Data Analysis and Reporting: Data were collected and analyzed by DIA's (b)(3):10 USC 424 Analysis of DIA's Annual Human Capital Survey included examination of mean level differences, trend analysis, sub-group analysis, regression analysis to identify key satisfaction drivers, and comparison with the 2011 Intelligence Community Survey, and OPM's Federal Employee Viewpoint Survey.

In this report, percent positive includes the top two points on the response scale: Agree and Strongly Agree, or Satisfied and Very Satisfied.

Why are Employee Perceptions Important?

Employee satisfaction and commitment are critical to maintaining high performing organizations and attracting and retaining top talent.

The US Merit Systems Protection Board (MSPB) found significant relationship between employee engagement and mission accomplishment in federal agencies¹. MSPB found that higher levels of employee engagement are correlated with:

- Higher scores on the program results/accountability portion of OMB's Program Assessment Rating Tool (PART)
- An employee's intent to leave the agency
- An agency's average sick leave use
- Levels of equal employment opportunity (EEO) complaint activity

Numerous studies of private and public sector organizations have demonstrated a positive relationship between employee satisfaction and engagement and desired organizational outcomes including customer satisfaction, productivity, and profitability.
