PREFACE

~~(C)~~ The Military Intelligence Summary (MIS), published in eight volumes, is a synopsis of military intelligence worldwide. Intended to serve as a ready reference, the MIS presents a compilation of intelligence on those forces that contribute to the military security of each country, and on the political and economic factors affecting the country's military capability. Published annually, the MIS serves to update information in other DIA publications.

(U) Information summarized in the MIS is available in detail in numerous DIA publications. A list of related publications, both completed and scheduled, is published in the Register of Intelligence Publications (DRS-2600-37-86) and the Defense Intelligence Production Schedule (DDB-2600-35-87) (Vol VI).

(U) Each classified title and heading has been properly marked; all those unmarked are unclassified.

(U) Typing support was provided by

(b)(3):10 USC 424

(U) Questions and comments concerning this publication should be referred in writing to the Defense Intelligence Agency (b)(3):10 USC 424 Washington, D.C. 20340-0001. Requests for additional copies should be forwarded through command approval channels, as appropriate, to DIA (b)(3):10 USC 424 in accordance with DIA Manual 59-1, DIA Intelligence Dissemination/Reference Services.
