NOTE FOR THE RECORD

On 30 May, I received a phone call from (b)(6) (b)(6) is acting as "intermediary" for Danny Stillman.

(b)(6) requesting that I put into writing the appeal process for getting approval for publication of Stillman's manuscript. Stated that Stillman and he believe that the length of time it has taken DIA to complete its review is tantamount to a "denial of publication."

I noted that it is difficult to make an appeal of the review when it is still ongoing. The point of the Stillman "appeal" would be to issue in writing a complaint about the length of time it is taking to complete review.

I agreed to send, via email, a note to Stillman explaining the appeal process.
