

BURMA

(U) Potential for Improved Civil-Military Relations After Recent Attacks

(b)(3):10 USC 424;(b)(1);Sec. 1.4(a);(b)(3):50 USC 3024(i);Sec. 1.4(b)

[Redacted]

(b)(1);Sec. 1.4(a);(b)(3):10 USC 424;Sec. 1.4(b);(b)(3):50 USC 3024(i)

[Redacted]

UNCLASSIFIED

(b)(3):10 USC 424;(b)(1);Sec. 1.4(a);(b)(3):50 USC 3024(i);Sec. 1.4(b)

[Redacted]

(b)(1);Sec. 1.4(a);(b)(3):10 USC 424;Sec. 1.4(b);(b)(3):50 USC 3024(i)

[Redacted]

- > (U) In October, ethnic Rakhine, who harbor deep-seated prejudice against the Rohingya, requested arms to form a militia, which national government officials denied, according to press reporting. The decision reinforced ethnic Rakhines' belief that government, NGO, and aid workers favor Rohingya.