((Mandela)) will lie in state at the Union Buildings in Pretoria. On 14 December 2013 there will be a huge send-off at Waterkloof and Tata. His body will be moved in a South African Air Force C130 aircraft to Mthatha Air port. Minister Mapisa-Nqakula will fly ahead to receive the body. The South African National Defence Force had cancelled all leave to have over 11000 soldiers help with logistical and security arrangements for Mandela's memorial and funeral services nationwide during the week.

(b)(3):10 USC 424

4. ~~(C)~~ [redacted] Defence Minister Nosiviwe ((Mapisa-Nqakula)) will set-up no-fly zones. The plan was being developed by the department of transport, the SA Civil Aviation Authority, and the South African Air force.

5. ~~(C)~~ [redacted] Both the Nelson Mandela Hospital and the Mthatha Airport has been taken over by the South African National Defence Force. Some patients had been released as early as Friday. They will decant patients not critically ill to nearby hospitals and deal with emergencies only. The hospital will be run jointly, by health and military, as they (the military) have indicated that all doctors must be available. The military will be managing more accident and emergenc y as other services such as obstetrics need to continue. Health department officials and doctors from outside Mthatha and the province are being sent to Qunu in the event of any health emergencies.
