| FOIA-00333-2015 | Manuchehri, Mina | All documents from 1981 to the present regarding a military operation known as "Operacion Envolverte" (Operation Encirclement). The operation occurred in the departments of San Vicente and Usulután, El Salvador and between 20-30 October 1981. We have knowledge that a massacre commonly referred to as "La Quesara Massacre" occurred during this time period. The Operation was initiated in response to the FMLN dynamiting the "Puente de Oro" bridge on 5 October 1981 and it resulted in the death of more than 500 people, including 24 children. The United States also sent in advisers in a helicopter to assess the damage to the bridge and to advise the Salvadoran government on how to quickly rebuild its replacement. We have knowledge that while the U.S. advisers were advising the Salvadoran government, they witnessed a Salvadoran pilot of the helicopter firing on unarmed civilians. This fact was reported in the media and also in a 7 November 1981 cable from U.S. Ambassador Dean Hinton. Please find attached [Attachment 1] declassified documents detailing this event, including Hinton's cable. | FOIA | 5/5/2015 |
| FOIA-00334-2015 | Manuchehri, Mina | All documents from 1980 to the present regarding a counterinsurgency operation that occurred in Santa Ana, El Salvador on 8 October 1980. This counterinsurgency operation resulted in a massacre commonly referred to as Las Canoas. During this operation, the National Guard of the Salvadoran military attacked a house with 70-80 people inside who were distributing food and clothes. It is reported that 23 people were killed-including ten women, nine men, and four who are still unidentified. It is further reported that at least two children were disappeared. | FOIA | 5/5/2015 |
| FOIA-00335-2015 | Manuchehri, Mina | All documents from 1980 to the present regarding the deaths of Salvadoran nationals and leftist political leaders, Ernesto Jovel, Augusto Cotto, and Anabel Ramos on 17 September 1980. All three men were killed in a plane crash at sea in waters off Panama; the plane left Nicaragua and was headed for Panama City. The incident was widely reported in the media and was originally reported as an accident; however, the public eventually questioned whether it was an accident because other political leaders had been eliminated in "convenient" plane crashes. | FOIA | 5/5/2015 |

| FOIA-00356-2015 | Greenewald, John | During the late night and early morning hours of November 5-6, 2014, coalition aircraft conducted airstrikes on targets in the vicinity of Harim City, Idlib Goveamate, Syria. The strikes were designed to destroy targets utilized by Khorasan Group-affiliated extremists to meet and manufacture explosives, including an explosives-making and storage facility used by know improvised explosive device (IED) manufacturers. Khorasan Group targets were assessed as destroyed as a result of those airstrikes. Despite the success of the two airstrikes in destroying the targets, the strikes likely resulted in the deaths of two civilians, causes minor injuries of two other civilians residing near one of the targeted locations. I respectfully request a copy of records, electronic or otherwise, pertaining to this incident. Please include any and all reports, memos, letters, inter-agency communications, intelligence reports, briefings, etc. | FOIA | 5/28/2015 |
